

The Unknown Soldier

Paul Keating, Prime Minister, Remembrance Day, November 1993

At the funeral service for the Unknown Soldier at the Way Memorial, Canberra the Prime Minister said:

We do not know this Australian's name, and we never will
We will not know his rank, or his batallion.

He may have been one of those who believed that the Great War was an adventure too grand to miss

Or he may have felt that he would never live down the shame of not going.

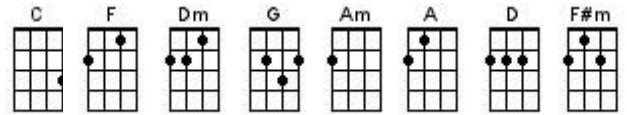

The Unknown Soldier honours the memory of all those men and women who laid down their lives for Australia

We've lost more than 100 thousand lives, but we've gained a legend, and a deeper understanding of what it means to be Australian.
