Verse 1: [G] Pastel red to burgundy and [C] spinifex to gold,
We've just come out of the mulga where the plains forever [G] roll.
And Albert Namatjira has [C] painted all the scenes,
And a shower has changed the lustre of his [G] land [G] [G]

CHORUS: And it's [G] raining on The [C] Rock, in a beautiful coun-[G]try,
And I'm proud to travel [C] this big land like an Aborig-[G] ine.
And it's raining on The [C] Rock, what an almighty sight to [G] see.
And I'm wishing on a post-[C]card that you were here with [G] me.

Instrumental: [G] [G] [C] [C] repeat

Verse 2 [G] Everlasting daisies and a [C] beautiful desert rose,
Where does their beauty come from, heaven [G] knows.
I could ask the wedgetail but [C] he's away too high,
I wonder if he understands it's wonderful to [G] fly.

CHORUS

Verse 3 It [G] cannot be described with a [C] picture,
The mesmerising colours of the [G] Olgas.
Or the grandeur of The [C] Rock,
Uluru has [G] power!

CHORUS

Outro: [G] [G] [C] [C] Slow strum [C]
