

Dominique

Jeannine Deckers & Noel Regney. Original in French

G C
 Dominique, nique, nique, I will tell of Dominique
 G D
 His goodness to acclaim
 G C
 And I pray this song I sing will some simple pleasure bring
 G D G
 That the world shall know his name

C D G
 I will tell of Dominique as I sing this little song
 A A7 D
 And when I sing the chords, so the world will sing along

G C
 Dominique, nique, nique, It was good Saint Dominique
 G D
 He lived for you and me
 G C
 From the labours long ago came a better world I know
 G D G
 And his love shall always be

C D G
 "Though I'm poor" said Dominique as he spoke unto the Lord
 A A7 D
 "I will be your humble servant and your love is my reward"

G C
 Dominique, nique, nique, I will follow Dominique
 G D
 His burdens will I share
 G C
 For his courage I will pray, his teachings to obey
 G D G
 His words shall be my pray'r

By the kindness of his heart and the labour of his hands
He brought love and understanding as he wandered through the land

Dominique, nique, nique, I will tell of Dominique
His goodness to acclaim
And I pray this song I sing will some simple pleasure bring
All the world shall know his name

Dominique the mighty warrior was a soldier of the Lord
His armour was devotion and the Gospel was his sword

Dominique, nique, nique, it was good Saint Dominique
He lived for you and me
From his labours long ago came a better world I know
That his love shall always be

Through the blazing heat of summer and the chill of winter snow
I will follow Dominique in his footsteps I will go

Dominique, nique, nique, I will follow Dominique
His burdens will I share
For his courage will I pray, his teachings to obey
His words shall be my pray'r
