

May Your Fridge Be Full Of Coldies

Written and performed by Greg Champion

Strum: D-duduD-

Intro Lick: [C] [D] [G] [G], [C] [D] [G] [G/]

Chorus May your [G] sheep have full bellies and pastures to graze,
May you get on well with the [D] Oldies.
May the [G] mozzies be few and the flies far between,
May your fridge be [D] full of [G] coldies.

[G] La, la [C] la la [D] la La [G] laaa

Verse 1

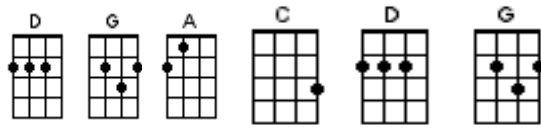

I [G] wish you good cheer, at [D] Christmas and New Year,
And holidays when you [G] need 'em.
I wish you grandchildren comin' [D] out of your ears,
(and something in the cupboard to [G] feed 'em).
And [C] if you must roam far [G] away from your home,
I [C] hope then the sun shines [D] on you.
And I [G] pray as you go that the [D] people you meet,
Shower many good things [G] upon you. (And) [G/]

Chorus May your [G] sheep have full bellies and pastures to graze,
May you get on well with the [D] Oldies.
May the [G] mozzies be few and the flies far between,
May your fridge be [D] full of [G] coldies.

[G] La, la [C] la la [D] la La [G] laaa

Next Page

[G] May your chooks

Verse 2

[G] May your chooks be contented and [D] wear a big smile,
 May your days be free of [G] foreboding.
 May your wages be many and your [D] pay packets full,
 With seventeen and a half percent [G] loading.
 May your [C] fields be fertile and [G] flowing with wheat,
[C] (especially if you're a wheat [D] farmer).
 May you [G] be a good fella to the [D] people you meet,
 And in winter may you have warm [G] pyjamas.

Chorus (Acapella) And, May your

At end of acapella go straight into playing ... (And may your [G] sheep)

Chorus

May your [G] sheep have full bellies and pastures to graze,
 May you get on well with the [D] Oldies.
 May the [G] mozzies be few and the flies far between,
 May your fridge be [D] full of [G] coldies.

Outro: [G] La, la [C] la la [D] la La [G] laaa

[G] La, la la [C] la la [D] la La [G] laaa

[G/] Cha Cha Cha